

CONTENTS.

	Pages.
Time Table of Receptions ... ..	5—7
Receptions of Ruling Chiefs by His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor.	9—19
Time Table of Return Visits ... ..	53—56
Return Visits to Ruling Chiefs by His Excellency the Governor-General.	57—114
Index ... ..	115

PART I.

---

RECEPTIONS OF RULING CHIEFS

BY

HIS IMPERIAL MAJESTY THE KING-EMPEROR.

.

TIME TABLE.

Ceremonial to be observed at the Reception of Ruling Chiefs by His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor.

FRIDAY, THE 8TH DECEMBER 1911.

Names.	Time of reception.
His Highness the Maharaja of Travancore ...	... 10 A.M.
His Highness the Raja of Cochin ...	... 10-5
His Highness the Maharaja of Jammu and Kashmir ...	... 10-10
His Highness the Maharaja of Gwalior ...	... 10-15
His Highness the Maharaja of Indore ...	... 10-20
Her Highness the Begam of Bhopal ...	... 10-25
His Highness the Maharaja of Rewa ...	... 10-30
His Highness the Maharaja of Orchha ...	... 10-35
His Highness the Raja of Dhar ...	... 10-40
His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Senior Branch) ...	... 10-45
His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Junior Branch) ...	... 10-50
His Highness the Maharaja of Patiala ...	... 10-55
His Highness the Nawab of Bahawalpur ...	... 11-0
His Highness the Raja of Nabha ...	... 11-5
His Highness the Maharaja of Bhutan ...	... 11-10
His Highness the Maharaja of Sikkim ...	... 11-20
His Highness the Khan of Kalat ...	... 11-30

Note.—Chiefs going to the reception will proceed to the King-Emperor's Camp via the Mall and Circuit House Road. They will return via King's Way and the Mall, except Their Highnesses the Maharajas of Bhutan and Sikkim and the Khan of Kalat, who will leave via Circuit House Road, the Mall, Najafgarh Road, and the Military Road. The Najafgarh Road is not shown on the map, but follows the alignment of the Najafgarh Cut.

TIME TABLE.

---

Ceremonial to be observed at the Reception of Ruling Chiefs entitled to salutes of less than 15 guns.

---

SATURDAY, THE 9TH DECEMBER 1911.

---

Chiefs who are entitled to salutes of under fifteen guns and not less than nine guns will be received by His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor <sup>separately</sup> ~~collectively~~ at 10 A.M., on Saturday, the 9th December 1911. The interview is expected to last an hour.

---

Note.—Chiefs will proceed to the King-Emperor's Camp for the reception via the Mall and Central Avenue, and return via King's Way and the Mall.

---

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS.

Political Officers will be responsible that the Chiefs proceed strictly up to time and follow the routes indicated.

According to the usual practice when His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor is present, the salutes, though shown in the programmes, will not actually be fired on the present occasion. Political Officers are requested to explain this to Chiefs.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

Reception Programmes.

HYDERABAD.

---

Reception of His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad.

---

At 2-45 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 12 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 21 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,

Master of the Ceremonies.

BARODA.

Reception of His Highness the Gaekwar of Baroda.

At 2-50 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Gaekwar of Baroda.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 12 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 21 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LLVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,

Master of the Ceremonies.

MYSORE.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

---

At 2-55 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 12 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pān to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 21 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN:

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

UDAIPUR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharana of Udaipur.

At 3 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharana of Udaipur

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 12 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 21 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

JAIPUR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Jaipur.

At 3-5 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1913, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Jaipur.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 12 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 21 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

JODHPUR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Jodhpur.

At 3-10 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive Their Highnesses the Maharaja of Jodhpur and the Regent, Maharaja Sir Pertap Singh.

Their Highnesses will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 5 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, Their Highnesses will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead them to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber Their Highnesses will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct them to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive Their Highnesses seated.

When Their Highnesses have approached the Throne, they will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of their race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to Their Highnesses and will garland them.

On receiving permission to depart Their Highnesses will make obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at departure will be the same as those observed at arrival.

Their Highnesses will be escorted to and from their camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute Their Highnesses on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on Their Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

BUNDI.

Reception of His Highness the Maharao Raja of Bundi.

---

At 3-15 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharao Raja of Bundi.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or High State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Bodyguard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

BIKANER.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Bikaner.

At 3-20 p.m., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Bikaner.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room Tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,

Master of the Ceremonies.

KOTA.

Reception of His Highness the Maharao of Kota.

---

At 3-25 p.m., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharao of Kota.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DR' SS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

KISHENGARH.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Kishengarh.

---

At 3-30 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Kishengarh.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

BHARATPUR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Bharatpur.

At 3-35 p.m., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Bharatpur.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give utr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

JAISALMER.

Reception of His Highness the Maharawal of Jaisalmer:

---

At 3-40 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharawal of Jaisalmer.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber: The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

ALWAR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Alwar.

---

At 3-45 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Alwar.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

TONK.

Reception of His Highness the Nawab of Tonk.

At 3-50 p.m., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Nawab of Tonk.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

DHOLPUR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaj Rana of Dholpur.

At 3-55. P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaj Rana of Dholpur.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pân to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

SIROHI.

Reception of His Highness the Maharao of Sirohi.

At 4 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharao of Sirohi.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

DUNGARPUR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharawal of Dungarpur.

---

At 4-5 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharawal of Dungarpur.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies

KOLHAPUR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Kolhapur.

At 4-10 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Kolhapur.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 12 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 21 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

CUTCH.

Reception of His Highness the Rao of Cutch.

At 4-15 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Rao of Cutch.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pān to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Bodyguard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

IDAR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Idar.

At 4-20 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Idar.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

KHAIRPUR.

Reception of His Highness the Mir of Khairpur.

At 4-25 P.M., on Thursday, the 7th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Mir of Khairpur.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

TRAVANCORE.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Travancore.

---

At 10 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Travancore.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 12 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 21 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

COCHIN.

Reception of His Highness the Raja of Cochin.

At 10-5 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911. His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Raja of Cochin.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 19 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

KASHMIR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Jammu and Kashmir.

At 10-10 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Jammu and Kashmir.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give tr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 19 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEL DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

GWALIOR.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Gwalior.

---

At 10-15 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Gwalior.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 19 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

INDORE.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Indore.

---

At 10-20 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Indore.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 19 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON.
Master of the Ceremonies.

BHOPAL.

Reception of Her Highness the Begum of Bhopal.

At 10-25 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive Her Highness the Begum of Bhopal.

Her Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, Her Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead her to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber Her Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct her to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive Her Highness seated.

When Her Highness has approached the Throne, she will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of her race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to Her Highness and will garland her.

On receiving permission to depart Her Highness will make her obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at Her Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at her arrival.

Her Highness will be escorted to and from her camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute Her Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 19 guns will be fired on Her Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

REWA.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Rewa.

---

At 10-30 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Rewa.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 Non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

ORCHHA.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Orchha.

---

At 10-35 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Orchha.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

DHAR.

Reception of His Highness the Raja of Dhar.

At 10-40 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Raja of Dhar.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

DEWAS.

Reception of His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Senior Branch).

---

At 10-45 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Senior Branch).

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

DEWAS.

Reception of His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Junior Branch).

---

At 10-50 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Junior Branch).

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,

Master of the Ceremonies.

PATIALA.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Patiala.

At 10-55 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Patiala.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

BAHAWALPUR.

Reception of His Highness the Nawab of Bahawalpur.

At 11 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Nawab of Bahawalpur.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to his highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

NABHA.

Reception of His Highness the Raja of Nabha.

---

At 11-5 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Raja of Nabha.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies

BHUTAN.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Bhutan.

At 11-10 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Bhutan.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr. pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 non-commissioned officer and 3 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

SIKKIM.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Sikkim.

---

At 11-20 A.M., on Friday, the 8th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Maharaja of Sikkim.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 8 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance. His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

KALAT.

Reception of His Highness the Khan of Kalat.

At 11-30 A.M., on Friday, the 9th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive His Highness the Khan of Kalat.

His Highness will be accompanied to the Reception Tent by not more than 9 Sardars or high State Officials.

On alighting at the entrance, His Highness will be met by an Aide-de-Camp, who will lead him to the Audience Chamber. The attendants will remain in the ante-room tent.

At the entrance of the Audience Chamber His Highness will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive His Highness seated.

When His Highness has approached the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies will give itr pan to His Highness and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart His Highness will make his obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The ceremonies at His Highness's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 2 non-commissioned officers and 12 sowars. The ante-room tent will be lined by a party of the Body-guard, and a band will play during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the entrance and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of 19 guns will be fired on His Highness's arrival, but not on departure.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,
Master of the Ceremonies.

Reception of Ruling Chiefs who are entitled to salutes of under fifteen guns and not less than nine guns.

At 10 A.M., on Saturday, the 9th December 1911, His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor will receive the following Ruling Chiefs, who are entitled to salutes of under fifteen guns and not less than nine guns :—

Bombay.

His Highness the Nawab of Palanpur.
His Highness the Jam of Navanagar.
His Highness the Maharaja of Bhavnagar.
His Highness the Raj Saheb of Dhrangadra.
His Highness the Raja of Rajpipla.
His Highness the Nawab of Cambay.
His Highness the Nawab of Radhanpur.
His Highness the Thakur Saheb of Gondal.
His Highness the Nawab of Janjira.
His Highness the Sultan of Lahej.
The Sultan of Shehr and Mokalla.
The Fadthli Sultan.
The Raja of Dharampur.
The Raja of Bansda.
The Raja of Chhota-Udepur.
The Maharawal of Baria.
The Nawab of Sachin.
The Raj Saheb of Wankaner.
The Thakur Saheb of Palitana.
The Thakur Saheb of Limbdi (Limri).
The Thakur Saheb of Rajkot.
The Chief of Bhor.
The Chief of Mudhol.

Rajputana.

His Highness the Raj Rana of Jhalawar.

Central India.

His Highness the Maharaja of Samthar.
His Highness the Nawab of Jacra.
His Highness the Raja of Ratlam.
His Highness the Maharaja of Panna.
His Highness the Maharaja of Charkhari.
His Highness the Maharaja of Bijawar.
His Highness the Maharaja of Chhatarpur.
His Highness the Raja of Sitamau.
His Highness the Raja of Sailana.
His Highness the Raja of Rajgarh.
His Highness the Raja of Narsingharh.
The Rana of Barwani.
The Rana of Alirajpur.

Bengal.

His Highness the Maharaja of Cooch Behar.
The Raja of Karond (Kalahandi).

United Provinces.

His Highness the Nawab of Rampur.
His Highness the Maharaja of Benares.
His Highness the Raja of Terbi (Garhwal).

Punjab.

His Highness the Raja of Jind.
His Highness the Raja of Kapurthala.
His Highness the Raja of Mandi.
His Highness the Raja of Sirmur (Nahan).
His Highness the Raja of Bilaspur (Kahlur).
His Highness the Nawab of Maler Kotla.
His Highness the Raja of Faridkot.
His Highness the Raja of Chamba.
His Highness the Raja of Suket.
The Nawab of Loharu.

Madras.

His Highness the Raja of Pudukkottai.

Eastern Bengal and Assam.

His Highness the Raja of Hill Tippera.
His Highness the Raja of Manipur.

Burma.

The Sawbwa of Kengtung.
The Sawbwa of Yanghwe.
The Sawbwa of Hsipaw.

Baluchistan.

The Jam of Las Bela.

Chiefs will be accompanied to the Royal Camp by not more than seven of their Sardars or High Officials, and will be met on alighting by an Aide-de-Camp to the King-Emperor, who will conduct them in the order above shown to the Audience Chamber.

The Chiefs' attendants will remain in the ante-room.

At the door of the Audience Chamber, each Chief will be met by the Master of the Ceremonies, who will conduct him to His Imperial Majesty's presence.

The King-Emperor will receive the Chiefs seated.

As each Chief approaches the Throne, he will be announced by the Master of the Ceremonies and will make the customary obeisance of his race.

At the close of the interview the Master of the Ceremonies and his Assistants will give itr pan to each Chief and will garland him.

On receiving permission to depart, Chiefs will make their obeisance, take a few steps backward, and leave.

The same ceremonies will be observed on the departure of the Chiefs as on their arrival.

Each Chief will be escorted from and to his camp by a party of cavalry consisting of 1 Non-commissioned officer and 8 sowars.

A Guard of Honour will be mounted opposite the entrance to the Royal Tents and will salute each Chief on arrival and departure.

A single salute of 13 guns followed after an interval by another of 11 guns and then by one of 9 guns will be fired when all the Chiefs have arrived to mark the salute to which they are severally entitled.

No further salute will be fired on the departure of the Chiefs.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN.

A. H. McMAHON,

Master of the Ceremonies.

PART II.

---

RETURN VISITS TO RULING CHIEFS

BY

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

TIME TABLE.

Ceremonial to be observed at the Return Visits of His Excellency the Governor-General to Ruling Chiefs.

62-01

63-01

THURSDAY, 7TH DECEMBER 1911.

His Excellency the Governor-General will leave the King-Emperor's Camp at 3-5 P.M., travelling via Circuit House, Road, the Mall and King's Way, and returning via King's Way.

His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad ...	Coronation Road.	3-10 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore ...	„	3-20 P.M.
His Highness the Gaekwar of Baroda ...	King's Way	3-30 P.M.
His Highness the Maharana of Udaipur...	„	3-40 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Bikaner ...	„	3-50 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Jaipur ...	„	4-0 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Kishengarh	„	4-10 P.M.
His Highness the Nawab of Tonk ...	„	4-20 P.M.
His Highness the Maharao Raja of Bundi	„	4-30 P.M.
His Highness the Maharao of Kota ...	„	4-40 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Alwar ...	„	4-50 P.M.
His Highness the Maharao of Sirohi ...	„	5-0 P.M.
His Highness the Maharawal of Jaisalmer	„	5-10 P.M.
His Highness the Maharawal of Dungarpur	„	5-20 P.M.

5
FRIDAY, THE 8TH DECEMBER 1911.

His Excellency the Governor-General will leave the King-Emperor's Camp at 10-5 A.M., travelling via King's Way, the Mall, and Coronation Road, and returning via the Mall and Central Avenue.

His Highness the Maharaja of Kolhapur	King's Way	10-20 A.M.
His Highness the Rao of Cutch ...	„	10-30 A.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Idar ...	„	10-40 A.M.
His Highness the Mir of Khairpur ...	„	10-50 A.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Gwalior	Coronation Road.	11-0 A.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Indore	„	11-10 A.M.
Her Highness the Nawab Begam of Bhopal.	„	11-20 A.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Rewa ...	„	11-30 A.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Orchha	„	11-40 A.M.
His Highness the Raja of Dhar ....	„	11-50 A.M.
His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Senior Branch).	„	12 NOON.
His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Junior Branch).	„	12-10 P.M.
His Highness the Khan of Kalat . ...	Military Road.	12-20 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Sikkim	Coronation Road.	12-30 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Bhutan	„	12-40 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Travancore.	„	12-50 P.M.
His Highness the Raja of Cochin ...	„	1-0 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Jammu and Kashmir.	„	1-10 P.M.
His Highness the Raja of Nabha ...	„	1-20 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Patiala	„	1-30 P.M.

SATURDAY, THE 9TH DECEMBER 1911.

His Excellency the Governor-General will leave the King-Emperor's Camp at 10-50 A.M., travelling via King's Way and thence via the Mall to Coronation Road, returning via the Mall and Central Avenue.

His Highness the Dewān of Palanpur	King's Way	11-0 A.M.
His Highness the Nawab of Radhanpur	„	11-10 A.M.
His Highness the Jam of Navanagar...	„	11-20 A.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Bhavnagar.	„	11-30 A.M.
His Highness the Raj Saheb of Dhrangadra.	„	11-40 A.M.
His Highness the Thakur Saheb of Gondal.	„	11-50 A.M.
His Highness the Raja of Rajpipla ...	„	12 NOON.
His Highness the Nawab of Cambay...	„	12-10 P.M.
His Highness the Nawab of Janjira ...	„	12-20 P.M.
His Highness the Raj Rana of Jhalawar	„	12-30 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Samthar	Coronation Road.	12-40 P.M.
His Highness the Nawab of Jaora ...	„	12-50 P.M.
His Highness the Raja of Ratlam ...	„	1-0 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Charkhari.	„	1-10 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Bijawar	„	1-20 P.M.
His Highness the Maharaja of Chhatarpur.	„	1-30 P.M.

MONDAY, THE 11TH DECEMBER 1911.

His Excellency the Governor-General will leave the King-Emperor's Camp at 8-30 A.M. proceeding via Central Avenue, the Mall, and Coronation Road, and returning via the Mall and Central Avenue.

His Highness the Maharaja of Benares ...	Coronation Road,	8-50 A.M.
His Highness the Nawab of Rampur ...	„	9-0 A.M.
His Highness the Raja of Mandi ...	„	9-10 A.M.
His Highness the Raja of Sirmur ...	„	9-20 A.M.
His Highness the Raja of Kapurthala ...	„	9-30 A.M.
His Highness the Raja of Jind ...	„	9-40 A.M.
His Highness Maharaja Sir Partab Singh Bahadur.	Imperial Cadet Corps Camp.	9-50 A.M.

NOTE.

(a) Owing to the short time available, the sending of a deputation to escort His Excellency the Governor-General to and from a Chief's camp will in all cases be excused.

(b) Nazars will not be presented by European members of a Chief's retinue.

(c) If a Resident or Political Agent has more than one Chief in his political charge and consequently cannot himself arrange to be present at a return visit, care should be taken to depute an officer to represent him.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

Return Visit Programmes.

---

HYDERABAD.

Return visit to His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad on Thursday, the 7th December, at 3-10 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Nizam's suite, will wait on the Governor-General at the King-Emperor's Camp at 3-0 P.M. precisely to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

His Excellency the Governor-General will leave the Royal camp at 3-5 P.M., and will be attended by the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to the Governor-General, the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

The Nizam, accompanied by the Resident at Hyderabad, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Nizam's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Resident, the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, His Excellency's Personal Staff, and the Resident's Staff.

On the left of the Nizam will sit the Minister, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Nizam's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nazars of five gold mohars each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview alar and pan will be presented by the Nizam to the Governor-General, to the Resident and to the Foreign Secretary, and His Highness's Minister will present alar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Mahārāja of Mysore.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Nizam's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

His Excellency will be escorted from and to the King-Emperor's Camp by a squadron of cavalry.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

MYSORE.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, G.C.S.I.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore on Thursday, the 14th December, at 3-20 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Nizam of Hyderabad to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, with the Yuvaraja and accompanied by the Resident, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Resident, the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, His Excellency's Personal Staff and the Resident's staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Yuvaraja and beyond him, at a slight interval, the Dewan and such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Yuvaraja will be presented by His Highness; and after a short interval the Dewan and His Highness's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and (with the exception of the Yuvaraja) will offer nazars of five gold mohars each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Resident and to the Foreign Secretary, and His Highness's Dewan will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attend the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Gaekwar of Baroda.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with Band, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the Band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

BARODA.

Return visit to His Highness the Gaekwar of Baroda, G.C.S.I.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Gaekwar of Baroda on Thursday, the 7th December, at 3-30 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Gaekwar's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Mysore to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Gaekwar, accompanied by the Resident at Baroda, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Gaekwar's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, His Excellency's Personal Staff and the Resident's staff.

On the left of the Gaekwar will sit the Resident, and beyond him the Minister, His Highness's relatives and such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Minister, and the Gaekwar's attendants will be presented by the Resident. The latter will offer nazars of five gold mohars each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview a'ar and pan will be presented by the Gaekwar to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharana of Udaipur.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Gaekwar's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

UDAIPUR.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharana of Udaipur, G.C.S.I.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharana of Udaipur on Thursday, the 7th December, at 3-40 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharana's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Gaekwar of Baroda to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharana, accompanied by the Resident in Mewar, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharana's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharana will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharana's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharana to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Bikaner.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharana's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Government of India,

BIKANER.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Bikaner, G.C.I.E., K.C.S.I.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Bikaner on Thursday, the 7th December, at 3-50 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Udaipur to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident in the Western Rajputana States,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Jaipur.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

• Or an officer representing him.

JAIPUR.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Jaipur, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., G.C.F.O.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Jaipur on Thursday, the 7th December at 4-0 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Bikanir to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident in Jaipur, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Kishengarh.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCEL-LENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

KISHANGARH.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Kishangarh, K.C.I.E.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Kishangarh on Thursday, the 7th December, at 4-10 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Jaipur, to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident in Jaipur,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Resident and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Nawab of Tonk.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

* Or an officer representing him.

TONK.

Return visit to His Highness the Nawab of Tonk, G.C.I.E.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Nawab of Tonk on Thursday, the 7th December, at 4-20 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Nawab's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Kishangarh to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Nawab, accompanied by the Resident in Jaipur,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Nawab's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Nawab will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durlar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Nawab's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Nawab to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharao Raja of Bundi.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Nawab's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

* Or an officer representing him.

BUNDI

Return ~~visit~~ to His Highness the Maharao Raja of Bundi, G.C.I.E.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharao Raja of Bundi on Thursday, the 7th December, at 4 30 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharao Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Nawal of Tonk to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharao Raja, accompanied by the Political Agent, Haraoti Agency, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharao Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharao Raja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharao Raja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharao Raja to the Governor-General and to the Foreign Secretary; His Highness's principal attendant will present ata and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharao of Kota.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharao Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUIT.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
SECRETARY

KOTA.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharao of Kota, G.C.I.E., K.C.S.I.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharao of Kota on Thursday, the 7th December at 4-40 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharao's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharao Raja of Bundi to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharao, accompanied by the Political Agent, Haraoti Agency,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharao's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharao will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharao's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazaris of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharao to the Governor-General, and to the Foreign Secretary; His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Alwar.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharao's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

ALWAR.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Alwar, K.C.S.I.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Alwar on Thursday, the 7th December at 4-50 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Kota to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent in the Eastern Rajputana States,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand in King's Way.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Sirahi.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LLVLE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

SIROHI.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharao of Sirohi, G.C.I.F., K.C.S.I.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharao of Sirohi on Thursday, the 7th December, at 5-0 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharao's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Alwar to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharao, accompanied by the Resident in the Western Rajputana States,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharao's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharao will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharao's attendants will be presented by the Resident and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharao to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharawal of Jaisalmer.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharao's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the land with play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

* Or an officer repr. senting him.

JAISALMER.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharawal of Jaisalmer.

His Excellency the Governor General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharawal of Jaisalmer on Thursday, the 7th December, at 5-10 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharawal's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharao of Sindhi, to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness:

The Maharawal, accompanied by the Resident in the Western Rajputana States,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharawal's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharawal will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharawal's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nazaris of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharawal to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharawal of Dungarpur.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharawal's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him

DUNGARPUR.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharawal of Dungarpur.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharawal of Dungarpur on Thursday, the 7th December, at 5-20 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharawal's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharawal of Jaisalmer to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharawal, accompanied by the Resident in Mewar,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharawal's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharawal will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharawal's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharawal to the Governor-General, and to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the King-Emperor's Camp.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharawal's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRILL WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

KOLHAPUR.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Kolhapur, G.C.S.I., G.C.F.O.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Kolhapur on Friday, the 8th December, at 10-20 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will wait on the Governor-General at the King-Emperor's Camp at 10 A.M. precisely to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

His Excellency the Governor-General will leave the King-Emperor's Camp at 10-5 A.M. and will be attended by the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to the Governor-General, the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident at Kolhapur, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Rao of Cutch.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

His Excellency will be escorted from the King-Emperor's Camp by a squadron of Cavalry.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

CUTCH.

Return visit to His Highness the Rao of Cutch, G.C.I.E.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Rao of Cutch on Friday, the 8th December, at 10-30 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Rao's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Kolhapur to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Rao, accompanied by the Political Resident in Cutch, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Rao's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat in his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Rao will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him the relatives of the Chief and such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Rao's relatives and attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Rao to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary; His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Idar.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Rao's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

IDAR.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Idar.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Idar on Friday, the 8th December, at 10-40 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the R/o of Cutch to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each; which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Mir of Khairpur.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
IE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

KHAIRPUR.

Return visit to His Highness the Mir of Khairpur.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Mir of Khairpur on Friday, the 8th December, at 10-50 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Mir's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Idar, to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Mir, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Mir's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Mir will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's relatives and attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Mir's relatives and not more than 8 of his attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Mir to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Gwalior.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Mir's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of Ind'

GWALIOR.

Return visit to Colonel His Highness the Maharaja of Gwalior, G.C.S.I., G.C.V.O., A.D.C.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Gwalior on Friday, the 8th December, at 11-0 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suila, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Mir of Khairpur to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Indore.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

INDORE.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Indore.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Indore on Friday, the 8th December, at 11-10 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Gwalior to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Dubbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, and to the Resident, and his Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Nawab Begam of Bhopal.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

BHOPAL.

Return visit to Her Highness the Nawab Begam of Bhopal, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of Her Highness the Nawab Begam of Bhopal on Friday, the 8th December, at 11-20 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of Her Highness the Nawab Begam's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Indore to conduct His Excellency to the camp of Her Highness.

The Nawab Begam, accompanied by the Political Agent in Bhopal, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Nawab Begam's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at her right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Nawab Begam will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him the heir-apparent and other sons of Her Highness and such of Her Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Darbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the heir-apparent and the Nawab Begam's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer *nazar*s of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Nawab Begam to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, and to the Political Agent, and Her Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Rewa.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Nawab Begam's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

REWA.

Return Visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Rewa, G.C.S.I.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Rewa on Friday, the 8th December, at 11-30 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Nawab Begam of Bhopal to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent in Baghelkhand, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary; His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Orchha.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

ORCHHA.

Return Visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Orchha, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.F.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Orchha on Friday, the 8th December, at 11 40 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Rewa to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent in Bundelkhand, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him the heir-apparent and such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the heir-apparent and the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, and to the Foreign Secretary; His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Dhar.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

DIAR.

Return visit to His Highness the Raja of Dhar.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Dhar on Friday, the 8th December, at 11-50 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Orchha to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Political Agent in Bhopawar, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nizars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pau will be presented by the Raja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Agent and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pau to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Dewas (Senior Branch).

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

DEWAS (SENIOR BRANCH).

Return visit to His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Senior Branch).

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Senior Branch) on Friday, the 8th December, at 12 noon.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Dhar to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Political Agent in Malwa, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Dewas (Junior Branch).

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

DEWAS (JUNIOR BRANCH).

Return visit to His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Junior Branch).

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Dewas (Junior Branch) on Friday, the 8th December, at 12-10 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Dewas (Senior Branch) to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Political Agent in Malwa,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nizars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raja to the Governor General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Khan of Kalat.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

KALAT.

Return visit to His Highness the Khan of Kalat, G.C.I.E.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Khan of Kalat on Friday, the 8th December, at 12-20 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Khan's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Dewas, (Junior Branch,) to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Khan, accompanied by the Political Agent in Kalat, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Khan's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Khan will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him His Highness's relatives and such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Khan's relatives and not more than nine of His Highness's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will present the hilts of their swords to be touched by His Excellency. This will bring the interview to a close.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Sikkim.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Khan's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

SIKKIM.

Return Visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Sikkim.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Sikkim on Friday, the 8th December, at 12-3, P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Khan of Ka'at to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Officer in Sikkim,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him the heir-apparent and such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's heir-apparent and attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will lay before His Excellency nazars of white scarves.

At the close of the interview tea will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Political Officer, and to the Private and Military Secretaries, and His Highness's principal attendant will present tea to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Bhutan.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

* Or an officer representing him.

BHUTAN.

Return Visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Bhutan, K.C.I.E.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Bhutan on Friday, the 8th December, at 12-40 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Sikkim to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Officer in Sikkim, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Darbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will lay before His Excellency nazars of white scarves.

At the close of the interview tea will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Political Officer, and to the Private and Military Secretaries, and His Highness's principal attendant will present Tibetan tea to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Travancore.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

TRAVANCORE.

Return Visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Travancore, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Travancore on Friday, the 8th December, at 12-50 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the Camp of the Maharaja of Bhutan to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident in Travancore* and Cochin, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's Camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Resident and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Cochin.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's Camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

COCHIN.

Return Visit to His Highness the Raja of Cochin, G.C.S.I.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Cochin on Friday, the 8th December, at 1 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the Camp of the Maharaja of Travancore to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Resident in Travancore and Cochin,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's Camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Resident, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Darbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's attendants will be presented by the Resident and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated to His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Kashmir.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Raja's Camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

KASHMIR.

Return Visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Jammu and Kashmir, & C.S.I.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Jammu and Kashmir on Friday, the 8th December, at 1-10 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Cochin to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, His Excellency's Personal Staff, and the Resident's staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Resident, and beyond him the members of the Maharaja's family and such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the members of the Maharaja's family and his attendants will be presented by the Resident, and will offer nozars, the heir-apparent and the Raja of Poonch of two gold mohars each, and the rest of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, and to the Resident, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Nabha.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LIVRE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

NABHA.

Return Visit to His Highness the Raja of Nabha, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Nabha on Friday, the 8th December, at 1-20 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Kashmir to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Political Agent for the Phulkian States* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Patiala.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him

In view of the short time available for return visits, the presentation of a reshksh will be omitted.

PATIALA.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Patiala.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Patiala on Friday, the 8th December, at 1-30 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of Kunwar Sir Ranbir Singh and the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Nabha to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent for the Phulkian States will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at His right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him Kunwar Sir Ranbir Singh and such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation Kunwar Sir Ranbir Singh and the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the King-Emperor's Camp.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

---

In view of the short time available for return visits, the presentation of a peshkash will be omitted.

PALANPUR.

Return visit to His Highness the Dewan of Palanpur, G.C.I.E.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Dewan of Palanpur on Saturday, the 9th December, at 11 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Dewan's suite, will wait on the Governor-General at the King-Emperor's Camp at 10-45 A.M. precisely to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

His Excellency the Governor-General will leave the King-Emperor's Camp at 10-50 A.M. and will be attended by the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to the Governor-General, the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

The Dewan, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Dewan's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Dewan will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Dewan's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Dewan to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Nawab of Radhanpur.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Dewan's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

His Excellency will be escorted by a squadron of cavalry.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

RADHANPUR.

Return Visit to His Highness the Nawab of Radhanpur.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Nawab of Radhanpur on Saturday, the 9th December, at 11-10 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Nawab's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Dewan of Palanpur to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Nawab, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency, alights from his carriage at the Nawab's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Nawab will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Nawab's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Nawab to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Jam of Navanagar.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Nawab's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Government of India;

NAVANAGAR.

Return Visit to His Highness the Jam of Navanagar.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Jam of Navanagar on Saturday, the 9th December, at 11-20 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Jam's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Nawab of Radhanpur to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Jam, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Jam's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Jam will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Jam's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Jam to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Bhavnagar.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Jam's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

BHAVNAGAR.

Return-Visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Bhavnagar, K.C.S.I.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Bhavnagar on Saturday, the 9th December, at 11-30 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Jam of Navanagar to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raj Saheb of Dhrangadra.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

DHRANGADRA.

Return Visit to His Highness the Raj Sahib of Dhrangadra.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raj Sahib of Dhrangadra on Saturday, the 9th December, at 11-40 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raj Sahib's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Bhavnagar to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raj Sahib, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raj Sahib's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raj Sahib will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raj Sahib's attendants will be presented, by the Political Officer, and will offer nazirs of que-gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raj Sahib to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Thakur Sahib of Gondal.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Raj Sahib's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

GONDAL.

Return Visit to His Highness the Thakur Saheb of Gondal, G.C.I.E.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Thakur Saheb of Gondal on Saturday, the 9th December, at 11-50 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Thakur Saheb's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raj Saheb of Dhrangadhra to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Thakur Saheb, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Thakur Saheb's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Thakur Saheb will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Thakur Saheb's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Thakur Saheb to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Rajpipla.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Thakur Saheb's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

RAJPIPLA.

Return Visit to His Highness the Raja of Rajpipla.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Rajpipla on Saturday, the 9th December, at 12 noon.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Thakur Saheb of Gondal to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Nawab of Bombay.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

CAMBAY.

Return Visit to His Highness the Nawab of Cambay.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Nawab of Cambay on Saturday, the 9th December, at 12-10 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Nawab's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Rajpipla to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Nawab, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Nawab's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Nawab will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Nawab's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Nawab to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British Officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Nawab of Janjira.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Nawab's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

JANJIRA.

Return Visit to His Highness the Nawab of Janjira, G.C.I.E.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Nawab of Janjira on Saturday, the 9th December, at 12-20 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Nawab's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Nawab of Cambay to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Nawab, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Nawab's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Nawab will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Nawab's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Nawab to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raj Rana of Jhalawar.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Nawab's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

JHALAWAR.

Return Visit to His Highness the Raj Rana of Jhalawar, K.C.S.I.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raj Rana of Jhalawar on Saturday, the 9th December, at 12-30 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raj Rana's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Nawab of Janjira to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raj Rana, accompanied by the Political Agent, Haraoti Agency,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raj Rana's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raj Rana will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raj Rana's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nuzars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pau will be presented by the Raj Rana to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pau to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Samthar.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Raj Rana's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVÉE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

---

SAMTHAR.

Return Visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Samthar.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Samthar on Saturday, the 9th December, at 12-40 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raj Rana of Jhalawar to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent in Bundelkhand,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Nawab of Jaora.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEL DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

§ Or an officer representing him.

JAORA.

Return Visit to His Highness the Nawab of Jaora.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Nawab of Jaora on Saturday, the 9th December, at 12-50 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Nawab's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Samthar to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Nawab, accompanied by the Political Agent in Malwa,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Nawab's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Nawab will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Nawab's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Nawab to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Ratlam.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Nawab's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

RATLAM.

Return Visit to His Highness the Raja of Ratlam, K.C.S.I.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Ratlam on Saturday, the 9th December, at 1-0 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Nawab of Jaora to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Political Agent in Malwa,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Charkhari.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY'S
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

* Or an officer representing him,

CHARKHARI.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Charkhari, C.I.E.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Charkhari on Saturday, the 9th December, at 1-10 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Ratlam to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent in Bundelkhand,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him, such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Bijawar.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

. BIJAWAR. '

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Bijawar.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Bijawar on Saturday, the 9th December, at 1-20 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Charkhari to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent in Bundelkhand,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Darbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Maharaja of Chhatarpur.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEL DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

CHHATARPUR.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Chhatarpur.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Chhatarpur on Saturday, the 9th December, at 1-30 P.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Bijawar to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent in Bundelkhand,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him, such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the King-Emperor's Camp.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

BENARES.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharaja of Benares, G.C.I.E.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Benares on Monday, the 11th December, at 8-50 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the Kunwar Sahib and the four principal officers of His Highness the Maharaja's suite, will wait on the Governor-General at the King-Emperor's camp at 8-25 A.M. precisely, to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

His Excellency the Governor-General will leave the King-Emperor's camp at 8-30 A.M., and will be attended by the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to the Governor-General, the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Agent to the Lieutenant-Governor for Benares* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Maharaja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Maharaja will sit the Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation Kunwar Sahib and the Maharaja's attendants will be presented by the Agent and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Maharaja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Agent and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Nawab of Rampur.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Maharaja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

His Excellency will be escorted by a squadron of Cavalry.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS;

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

* Or an officer representing him.

RAMPUR.

Return Visit to His Highness the Nawab of Rampur, G.C.I.E.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Nawab of Rampur on Monday, the 11th December, at 9 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Nawab's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Maharaja of Benares to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Nawab, accompanied by the Agent to the Lieutenant-Governor for Rampur* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Nawab's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary in the Foreign Department and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Nawab will sit the Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Nawab's attendants will be presented by the Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Nawab to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Mandi.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Nawab's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

MANDI.

Return Visit to His Highness the Raja of Mandi.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Mandi on Monday, the 11th December, at 9-10 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Nawab of Rampur to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Simur.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

In view of the short time available for return visits, the presentation of a peshkash will be omitted.

SIRMUR.

Return visit to His Highness the Raja of Sirmur (Nahan).

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Sirmur on Monday, the 11th December, at 9-20 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of Lieutenant-Colonel Bir Bikram Singh, C.I.E., and the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Mandi to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Political Officer, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Kapurthala.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

DEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

---

* In view of the short time available for return visits, the presentation of a peshkash will be omitted.

KAPURTHALA.

Return visit to His Highness the Raja of Kapurthala, K.C.S.I.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Kapurthala on Monday, the 11th December at 9-30 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the Tikka Sahib and the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Sirmur to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness, will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Political Officer and beyond him the Tikka Sahib, the Raja's three younger sons and such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's sons and attendants will be presented by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Officer, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Raja of Jind.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY,
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

---

In view of the short time available for return visits, the presentation of a peshekash will be omitted.

JIND.

Return visit to His Highness the Raja of Jind, K.C.S.I.

His Excellency the Governor-General will return the visit of His Highness the Raja of Jind on Monday, the 4th December, at 9-40 A.M.

A deputation, consisting of the four principal officers of His Highness the Raja's suite, will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Kapurthala to conduct His Excellency to the camp of His Highness.

The Raja, accompanied by the Political Agent of the Phulkian States,* will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Raja's camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency, the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of the Raja will sit the Political Agent, and beyond him such of His Highness's attendants as are entitled to a seat in Durbar, according to their rank.

After a short conversation the Raja's attendants will be presented by the Political Agent, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by the Raja to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Private and Military Secretaries, and to the Political Agent, and His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the point at which he will be met by the deputation from the Regent of Jodhpur.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, with band, will be drawn up at the Raja's camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

His Excellency will be escorted by

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY
THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

---

* Or an officer representing him.

JODHPUR.

Visit of His Excellency the Governor-General, at Delhi, to His Highness Maharaja Sir Partab Singh, Regent of Jodhpur.

---

His Excellency the Governor-General will pay a visit to His Highness Maharaja Sir Partab Singh Bahadur on Monday, the 11th December, at 9-50 A.M.

A deputation will meet the Governor-General as he leaves the camp of the Raja of Jind, to conduct His Excellency to the Imperial Cadet Corps Camp.

Maharaja Sir Partab Singh will receive the Governor-General as His Excellency alights from his carriage at the Imperial Cadet Corps Camp, and will conduct him to the reception tent and to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Governor-General will sit the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency the Under-Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

On the left of Sir Partab Singh will sit Sir Partab's attendants.

After a short conversation Sir Partab will present his attendants, who will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview atar and pan will be presented by Sir Partab to the Governor-General, to the Foreign Secretary; His Highness's principal attendant will present atar and pan to the other British officers present.

The ceremonies which attended the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated at His Excellency's departure, the deputation accompanying His Excellency to the King-Emperor's Camp.

A Guard of Honour of British Infantry, with band and colours, will be drawn up at the Imperial Cadet Corps Camp. The Guard of Honour will salute the Governor-General on his arrival and departure, and the band will play an appropriate air.

LEVEE DRESS WILL BE WORN, EXCEPT BY OFFICERS IN HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S SUITE.

L. W. REYNOLDS.

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

---

---

INDEX.

---

---

INDEX.

			PAGES.
	A.
Alirajpur ...	...	...	... 47
Alwar...	...	...	... 21, 68
	B.
Babawpalur ...	...	...	... 42
Bansda ...	...	...	... 47
Baria ...	...	...	... 47
Baroda ...	...	...	... 10, 60
Barwani ...	...	...	... 47
Benares ...	...	...	... 48, 108
Bharatpur ...	...	...	... 19
Bhavnagar ...	...	...	... 47, 95
Bhopal ...	...	...	... 35, 78
Bhor ...	...	...	... 47
Bhutan ...	...	...	... 44, 86
Bijawar ...	...	...	... 47, 106
Bikaner ...	...	...	... 16, 62
Bilaspur (Kahlur) ...	...	...	... 48
Bundi ...	...	...	... 15, 66
	C.
Cambay ..	...	...	... 47, 99
Chamba ...	...	...	... 48
Charkhari ...	...	...	... 47, 105
Chhatarpur ...	...	...	... 47, 107
Chhota-Udaipur ...	...	...	... 47
Cochin ...	...	...	... 31, 88
Cooch Behar ...	...	...	... 48
Cutch ...	...	...	... 27, 73
	D.
Dhar ...	...	...	... 38, 81
Dharampur ...	...	...	... 47
Dholpur ...	...	...	... 23
Dewas (Senior Branch) ...	...	...	... 39, 82
Dewas (Junior Branch) ...	...	...	... 40, 83
Dhrangadra ...	...	...	... 47, 96
Dungarpur ...	...	...	... 25, 71

F

Fadthli Sultan	...	...	...	47
Faridkot	...	...	...	48

G.

Gondal	...	...	...	47, 97
Gwalior	...	...	...	33, 76

H.

Hill Tippera	...	...	...	48
Hsipaw	...	...	...	48
Hyderabad	...	...	...	9, 57

I.

Idar	...	...	...	28, 74
Indore	...	...	...	34, 77

J.

Jaipur	...	...	...	13, 63
Jaisalmer	...	...	...	20, 70
Janjira	...	...	...	47, 100
Jaora	...	...	...	47, 103
Jhalawar	...	...	...	47, 101
Jind	...	...	...	48
Jodhpur ...	...	...	...	14

K.

Kalat	...	...	...	46, 84
Kapurthala	...	...	...	48, 112
Karond (Kalabandi)	...	...	...	48
Kashmir	...	...	...	32, 59
Kengtung	...	...	...	48
Khairpur	...	...	...	29, 75
ishengarh	...	...	...	18, 64
olhapur	...	...	...	26, 72
ota	...	...	...	17, 67

L.

Lahej	...	...	...	47
Las Bela	...	...	...	48
Limbdi (Limri)	...	...	...	47
Loharu	...	...	...	48

M.

Maler Kotla	...	...	...	48
Mandi	...	...	...	48, 110
Manipur	...	...	...	48
Mudhol	...	...	...	47
Mysore	...	...	...	11, 59

N.

Nabha	...	...	...	43, 90
Narsingharh	...	...	...	47
Navanagar	...	...	...	47, 94

O.

Orchha	...	...	...	37, 80
--------	-----	-----	-----	--------

P.

Palampur	...	...	...	47, 92
Palitana	...	...	...	47
Panna	...	...	...	47
Partab Singh, His Highness Maharaja Sir	...	...	...	14
Patiala	...	...	...	41, 91
Pudukkottai	...	...	...	48

R.

Radhanpur	...	...	...	47, 93
Rajgarh	...	...	...	47
Rajkot	...	...	...	47
Rajpipla	...	...	...	47, 98

R.

Rāmpur	...	...	...	...48,109
Ratlam	...	...	...	...47,104
Rewa	...	...	...	...36,79

S.

Saehin	...	...	...	...47
Sailana	...	...	...	...47
Samthar	...	...	...	...47,102
Shehr and Mokalla	...	...	...	...47
Sikkim	...	...	...	...45,85
Sirmur (Nahan)	...	...	...	...48,111
Sirobi	...	...	...	...24,69
Sitamau	...	...	...	...47
Suket	...	...	...	...48

T.

Tehri (Garhwal)	...	...	...	...48
Tonk	...	...	...	...22,65
Travancore	...	...	...	...30,87

U.

Udaipur (Mewar)	...	...	...	...12,61
-----------------	-----	-----	-----	----------

W.

Waukaner	...	...	...	...47
----------	-----	-----	-----	-------

Y.

Yaughwe	...	...	...	...48
---------	-----	-----	-----	-------

